2004 ANNUAL REPORT

MAYOR ARNOLD CAMPBELL
MAYOR PRO-TEM JO ANNE MCSHANE
COUNCIL MEMBER MARY BUSH
COUNCIL MEMBER JAMES MITCHELL
COUNCIL MEMBER VALERIE KNOL
CITY MANAGER VINCENT PASTUE

Honorable Arnold T. Campbell, Mayor
The Council of the City of Farmington
Vincent D. Pastue, City Manager

It is my privilege to introduce my first annual report as Director of Public Safety. The annual report has a new look. In addition to statistical data, the report introduces the public safety staff, describes our services, highlights our accomplishments and records our history. A table of contents outlines all new subjects. The statistical data at the rear of the report will aid in the implementation of new strategies to improve public safety services.

Crime, traffic and fire data are presented in a new format. Part I, II and III crimes have been replaced by Group A, B and C offenses. The Michigan Incident Crime Reporting (MICR) system converted to this format several years ago. Our conversion will keep Farmington consistent with state and federal reporting.

Group A crimes can best be described as the most serious twenty offenses followed by ten less serious Group B offenses, concluding with twelve categories of Group C minor offenses and calls for service. In order to create a comparison for 2004 data, 2003 statistics were converted to the A, B, C reporting system.

Sixteen of the seventeen most serious crimes decreased or stayed the same in 2004. The total of Group A offenses increased 2.3% last year. There were 569 total Group A offenses in 2004, compared to 556 in 2003. The most significant factor contributing to this increase are thirty-four additional assault offenses. The majority of assaults are related to domestic violence occurrences. The department has partnered with the Call to Action Community Coalition to reduce these crimes in 2005. The department is proud to have solved all of our armed robberies (4) and forcible sexual assaults (3) in 2004.

Ten Group A offenses decreased last year, seven stayed the same and four showed an increase. Three of the five categories increased because of aggressive police work. Narcotic offenses increased 31% because of more arrests, gambling offenses increased 100% because of a major gambling raid, and fleeing and eluding offenses increased 200%. Both vehicle pursuits ended with the arrest of persons involved in armed car jackings that occurred in other communities.

Honorable Arnold T. Campbell, Mayor
The Council of the City of Farmington
Vincent D. Pastue, City Manager

Group B offenses increased 3.6%. There were 637 Group B offenses in 2004, compared to 615 in 2003. This category increase is a result of strict enforcement. The Department arrested more persons for drunk driving offenses, bench warrants and ordinance violations than in 2003.

Group C offenses decreased 3%. There were 5,007 incidents in 2004, compared to 5,160 in 2003. The Department responded to 655 sick and injured person calls in 2004 (+7.6%), compared to 609 in 2003.

The department remains committed to community policing. This report highlights forty-six community policing programs. The new Holiday Enforcement Program earned the department the "Michigan Association of Chiefs of Police 2004 Excellence in Traffic Enforcement" award. Further community policing expansions are planned for 2005.

I would like to thank Administrative Assistant Carole LeBlanc and Records Supervisor Corinne Brazzil for their hard work on this annual report. The professional men and women of the department are credited with the accomplishments contained in this report. They were supported by outstanding city officials, business owners, community organizations, school officials, and residents.

The Department said "goodbye" to five department veterans who retired in 2004; including Director Gary Goss and Interim Director Michael Wiggins. We carry on their tradition of excellence.

I conclude my introduction with our new Mission Statement:

.... To deliver superior public safety services with integrity and character, and to protect civil rights without prejudice or partiality.

Respectfully submitted,

Charles A. Nebus
Public Safety Director
