SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Resisting Arrest

On April 28th officers were dispatched to the 23600 block of Wilmarth for a possible fight in progress. Upon arrival officers made the home and noticed a white male that they had recognized as a former resident of the home take off running once he saw officers. The male was quickly stopped on Cortland by another officer. Officers determined that there wasn't an assault that had occurred and noted that the white male was heavily intoxicated. A check of the man's name revealed that he had a warrant for his arrest for Operating Under the Influence out of the 40th District Court. At that point the man attempted to take off running again and was quickly caught. The man was arrested and cited for disorderly intoxication and resisting arrest.

Retail Fraud

On April 29th officers were dispatched to the Shell Gas Station on Grand River Ave for a report of a shoplifting of liquor. Upon arrival officers learned that an unknown white male had entered the gas station and stole a bottle of liquor. The clerk noticed the theft when checking surveillance video after he noticed the man leave without buying anything. The man, pictured to the right, is a white male wearing blue jeans and blue/red plaid shirt.

Counterfeiting

On May 1st a Farmington resident reported that an unknown 17 year old male paid the victim with (4) counterfeit one hundred dollar bills for a pair of Apple Air Pods that the victim was selling. The case was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Operating While Intoxicated with High BAC

On May 2nd an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle in the area of Grand River Ave and Power for speeding and swerving. Further investigation revealed that the driver exhibited signs of intoxication. The driver failed several sobriety exams and was subsequently arrested for operating while intoxicated. The driver had a breath alcohol content of .19 and was housed until sober.
