SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Assist Other Police Agency

On August 18th a Sergeant on patrol observed a vehicle running blocking a parking lot in Farmington Hills. The Sergeant noticed that the driver appeared to be asleep behind the wheel. The Sergeant went to check on the man and noticed that there appeared to be a pistol visible in the front console. The Sergeant woke the man and ordered him away from the pistol. As the man exited the vehicle, two packets of suspected crack cocaine fell to the ground. The man was arrested and turned over to FHPD police. The pistol turned out to be an airsoft toy.

Fraud

On August 18th a Chatham Hills Apartments resident reported at the police station that an unknown person had debited $300 from the victim’s bank account through a phone app called “CashApp”. The case was forwarded to the Detective Bureau.

Suspicious Person

On August 18th a State St. resident reported at the Police station that on August 17th she had heard her front door open and then slam shut. The resident checked her front door and didn’t
