SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Stolen Vehicle

On August 31st a Lakeway resident came into the police department to report that her 2006 Chevrolet Uplander had been stolen out of the parking lot at the end of her street. The victim advised that she believes that the vehicle had been stolen sometime during the month of July but she was not aware that the vehicle was gone until recently. The case was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Accidental Property Damage

On September 1st officers and Engine 1 responded to the Kensington Manor Apartment complex for a report of a natural gas line that had been struck by an underground boring machine. Upon arrival officers learned that the MissDig markings had been improperly marked and the company doing the boring work had struck the gas line. No one was injured and the scene was turned over to Consumers Energy.

Trespassing Warning

On September 2nd at approximately 3:50 AM officers responded to the Drakeshire Apartment Complex for a report of a woman sitting in a car and blaring the horn. Upon arrival Officers located the woman sitting in her car. The woman advised that she was at the complex to visit her sister, who lives in the building where the woman was parked. Officers spoke with the complainant and learned that the trespassing woman is an ex-girlfriend of her brother's. The woman had been texting and threatening the complainant all night and recently showed up at the complainant's doorstep. The complainant did not want to pursue any charges, but only wanted the woman to leave. The woman was served with a no trespassing warning and she left without incident.

Assault and Battery

On September 5th officers responded to the area of Grand River and Hawthorne for a report of a fight between several juveniles. Upon arrival officers located the group and learned that one of the juveniles, a 15 year old female, had been assaulted by another 15 year old female. Officers learned that the victim and the suspect know each other and that they both had been at Sport and Fun earlier in the day. The victim and her friends had decided to go to Jet's Pizza when the victim was attacked by the suspect. The suspect had fled the scene prior to officers' arrival and the incident was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation. The injuries were minor and the victim knows who the suspect is.

Fraud

On September 5th a Heritage Lane resident reported at the Police desk that she had been contacted via Instagram by an unknown stranger. The stranger advised the victim that the stranger would send the victim several checks totaling $8,400. In return, the victim would need to cash the checks and transfer $5,600 to various Venmo and Zell accounts, then she could keep the remainder. The victim made the transactions and later learned from her bank that the checks were fraudulent. The case was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Carrying a Concealed Pistol

On September 5th a Sergeant on patrol stopped a vehicle in the area of Grand River and Halsted for an improper lane use violation. Further investigation revealed that the driver had a suspended driver's license and was in possession of a Glock 9mm pistol. The man did not have a concealed pistol license and was arrested for carrying a concealed weapon and driving on a suspended license. The case was forwarded to the Oakland County Prosecutor's Office for a warrant.
