

Farmington Public Safety Department

WEEKLY SHIFT REPORT

February 24, through March 1, 2020

CALL TYPE & QUANTITY

TOTAL CALLS	TRAFFIC STOPS	MEDICALS	FIRE CALLS	CRASHES
172	96	19	2	2

ARREST TYPE & QUANTITY

OWI	OUID	DWLS	WARRANT	FELONY
0	0	1	3	0

SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Suspicious Phone Call

On February 24th an officer was dispatched to a residence on James Ct for a report of a possible attempt fraud. Upon arrival the complainant advised the officer that he had received a phone call from a man claiming to be from Medicare who wanted to confirm some information. The complainant immediately became suspicious because the man had an Indian accent and did not seem to be familiar with how Medicare works. The complainant confronted the man over the phone and the man abruptly disconnected the call. The complainant was advised how to protect his identity.

Neighbor Trouble

On February 26th officers responded to the Brookdale Condominium complex for a report of a highly intoxicated residence causing a disturbance. Upon arrival officers spoke with the complainant who advised that his neighbor had been playing his music too loudly and became verbally hostile when the complainant confronted him. Officers located the man and noted that he was highly intoxicated, but that there was no loud music. Later in the evening, officers returned to the intoxicated man because he was talking too loudly. The man was advised of local ordinance and the report was forwarded to complex management to handle.

Larceny of Mail

On February 26th a Heatherton resident came into the department to report that a package from Amazon had been reported delivered to his residence, but that it was no longer there.

Weekly Shift Report
February 23rd, 2019 through March 1st, 2019

The resident does not know who stole his package and the case was forwarded to the detective bureau for further investigation.

