

Farmington Public Safety Department

WEEKLY SHIFT REPORT

March 2, 2020 through March 8, 2020

CALL TYPE & QUANTITY

TOTAL CALLS	TRAFFIC STOPS	MEDICALS	FIRE CALLS	CRASHES
239	128	15	2	3

ARREST TYPE & QUANTITY

OWI	OUID	DWLS	WARRANT	FELONY
0	0	2	1	0

SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Civil Matter

On March 2nd a Redford Twp resident came into the police department to report that he had taken his car to the Valvoline on Grand River Ave and that they had accidentally drained his differential fluid instead of his oil, causing damage to his vehicle. A report was filed and the man was advised it was a civil matter.

Illegal Dumping

On March 4th a Legato Salon employee reported at the police department that an unknown person had illegally dumped a wooden pallet at the dumpster behind the Grand River business. Officers investigated and were able to track down the suspect, a delivery driver for US Foods. The suspect was contacted and cited for illegal dumping.

Odor Investigation

On March 6th Officers and Engine 1 responded to the 33000 block of Shiawassee for a report of an odor of smoke in a building. Upon arrival, officers noted that the next door neighbor had been using their fireplace and that somehow the odor went into the neighbor's home. The building was checked with no fire being present.

Trespassing

On March 6th Officers were dispatched to an office complex on the 24000 block of Drake Rd. for a customer trouble. Upon arrival the officers spoke with the business owner who advised that a customer had come to the business requesting the customer's 2018 tax records. The business

Weekly Shift Report

March 2nd, 2019 through March 8th, 2019

owner does not keep previous year's tax records on site and the customer was extremely upset that he could not retrieve his records immediately. The customer began arguing with employees, so the business owner called police. The customer was advised on how to obtain his records and was issued a no trespassing order for the business.

