SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Fire Alarm

On January 18th officers and Engine 1 responded to the Medilodge Nursing Home on Grand River Ave for a report of a fire alarm. Upon arrival officers determined that the alarm was pulled by an employee who had accidentally locked herself in a room in the basement. The alarm was reset by officers.

Assist other law enforcement agency

On January 18th an officer learned via police radio that a suspect had fled the scene of an assault and battery in the City of Farmington Hills in a black Dodge Charger. The officer observed the suspect fail to stop at the stop sign at Farmington Rd. and Ten Mile. The officer stopped the suspect at Farmington Rd. and Shiawassee. The officer attempted to arrest the suspect on the assault charge, but the man pulled away in an attempt to not be handcuffed. Additional officers arrived on scene and the man was arrested. The suspect was turned over to the Farmington Hills Police Department.

Larceny of Auto Parts

On January 19th an officer responded to the Graham Construction Company on Grand River Ave for a report of a larceny. Upon arrival the officer learned from the company representative that a company pick up truck had been parked in the parking lot on 01/18/2021. On 01/19/2021 the employee returned to work and discovered that the tailgate had been stolen off of the truck. The complainant does not know who stole the tailgate.

Fraud

On January 22nd an officer responded to a residence at Kensington Manor Apartments for a report of a fraud/scam. Upon arrival the officer learned from the victim that she had received a phone call from an unknown male with an Indian accent. The man advised the victim that someone with her Social Security number had committed various crimes in Texas and that there is a warrant out for her arrest. The man instructed the victim to purchase $800 worth of Google Play gift cards and provide him with the gift card account numbers. The victim went to the Kroger Grocery store and was advised by the employees that she needs to contact the police because the man is trying to scam her. The victim did not heed the Kroger employees' warnings and instead purchased the gift cards from Walmart, providing the numbers to the man. After providing the numbers, the victim reported the incident to the police. The incident was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation.
