SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Fraud

On January 18th an employee of Granite Creations reported that an unknown person had hacked the company's email system and sent a bill to a customer. The bill that was sent had a banking routing number and account that was not associated with the company. No money was ever sent to the bank and the incident was turned over to the detective bureau for further investigation.

Customer Trouble

On January 23rd an employee of the Dollar General on Orchard Lake called police reference a disorderly customer. Officers arrived on scene and located the customer. Officers learned that the customer walked into the store with an attitude, yelling at employees and other customers. The man was issued a no trespassing order and told not to return.
