WEEKLY REPORT

January 5 - 11, 2015

HARASSING COMMUNICATIONS

On January 5th an employee of an apartment complex on Farmington Road came to the station to report two residents who have been harassing her at work. The employee states that while performing her job duties, two residents tried to hug her and talk to her. She also stated that one of them has sent her explicit text messages. She no longer wants them to contact her. She was provided with information on how to obtain a Personal Protection Order.

FELONY WARRANT

On January 5th, at approximately 9:45 a.m., an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle in the area of Grand River and Orchard Lake Road for turning right on red where prohibited. Further investigation revealed that the driver had a warrant for his arrest out of Oakland County for being in possession of Cocaine. The driver was arrested on the warrant and housed at the Farmington jail.

SUSPICIOUS PERSON

On January 6th a resident in the 36400 block of Saxony called to report that an unknown male was knocking on the back door wall of the residence. The occupant went to a different part of the house and called the police and was unable to obtain a description of the person. Officers checked the area and did not locate anyone. Officers also checked the back of the residence and found nothing disturbed.

SUSPICIOUS PERSON

On January 6th a resident in the 35800 block of Briar Ridge called to report an elderly male carrying a snow shovel approached them to shovel snow. The resident found this odd because the person did not go to other homes in the area but only approached them while they were getting ready to leave. When they declined, the person left the area on foot into the subdivision. Officers checked the area and did not locate anyone.

ODOR INVESTIGATION

On January 7th, at approximately 4:45 a.m., officers and Engine 3 were dispatched to a residence on Birchwood for an odor investigation. Upon arrival officers checked the home and noted a chemical odor in the home. Officers were unable to determine the origin or cause of the odor, noting that it appeared to be an electrical burn odor. Officers checked the entire home with the thermal imaging camera and the gas monitor with no indication of any fire. The homeowners were advised to have their electrician test the home's electrical system and to contact this department should the odor get worse.

DISORDERLY PERSON

On January 8th, at 3:27 a.m., officers were dispatched to a gas station on Grand River near Power Road for the report of a disorderly patron. Officers arrived to find the suspect vehicle leaving the area. Officers stopped the vehicle and made contact with the driver. The driver stated that he had a verbal altercation with the clerk over an item for sale. The driver stated that the clerk was upset and said that she was "going to make him her slave." He then told her to "get lost" and he left. It was confirmed with the clerk and she stated that she does not want the subject to return. The driver agreed and was released.

ASSIST OTHER LAW ENFORCEMENT AGENCY

In the morning hours of January 9th, Farmington officers assisted Farmington Hills with several vehicle spin outs on M-5 between Orchard Lake Road and Grand River. The freeway was closed for a short time to allow salt crews from Oakland County to salt the freeway.

LARCENY

A resident from Drakeshire Apartments came to the station to report a package that was stolen from outside his apartment door. The resident was on vacation when a package was delivered from UPS. Upon his return he confirmed the package was delivered by UPS but none of his neighbors saw the package outside his door. It is believed an unknown person took the package shortly after it was delivered.

FIRE ALARM

On January 10th, at approximately 9:40 p.m., officers were dispatched to Our Lady of Sorrows Family Center for a report of a fire alarm. Upon arrival it was learned that the alarm was tripped when someone had accidentally leaned up against the alarm. The alarm was reset and officers cleared the scene.

SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCE

On January 10th, at approximately 10:10 p.m., officers were dispatched to the Zap Zone for a report of a larceny of a cell phone. Upon arrival officers learned that the owner of the cell phone had left her phone in the bathroom and had forgotten it there. When she returned looking for the phone, she noticed it was missing. The officer took the report and left the scene. Approximately an hour later the officer was contacted by management who advised that they had found the cell phone in the building.

ODOR INVESTIGATION

On January 10th, at approximately 10:39 p.m., officers were dispatched to the area of Grand River and Orchard Lake Road for an odor of gas. Upon arrival officers checked the area and noted no odor.

WARRANT ARREST

On January 10th, at approximately 11:58 p.m., officers were dispatched to Valley View Condominiums for a report of a disorderly intoxicated visitor who is refusing to leave. Upon arrival officers met with the reporting person who advised that he had allowed his homeless friend to spend the night, but that his friend had consumed so much alcohol that he is becoming irate and disorderly. The reporting person wants his friend to leave, but his friend is refusing. Officers checked the friend's name through LEIN and noted that he had a child support warrant for his arrest out of the 6th Circuit Court. The Oakland County Sheriff's Office was contacted who advised that they wanted the man. The man was arrested on the warrant and transported to Maple and Haggerty where he was turned over to an Oakland County deputy.

OPERATING WHILE INTOXICATED (OWI)

On January 11th, at approximately 1:20 a.m., a commander on patrol noticed a vehicle speeding on Drake Road between Grand River and Freedom Road. The vehicle then disobeyed the red light at Drake Road and Freedom, sped on Lytle Street, and crossed over the double yellow line on Gill Road near Nine Mile. The vehicle was stopped in the area of Nine Mile and Cass Street. Upon approaching the driver, the commander noted that the driver had chewing tobacco in his mouth and was attempting to smoke a cigarette at the same time. The driver exhibited signs of intoxication but denied drinking. The driver failed several sobriety exams and refused to take a breath test. The driver was arrested for OWI and a search warrant was obtained for the driver's blood. The driver was housed at the Farmington jail.

NOTE:

Dayshift officers also responded to twelve (12) medical emergencies and four (4) traffic crashes during this time period.
