WEEKLY REPORT

January 19 - 25, 2015

BREAKING AND ENTERING

On January 19th a homeowner in the 22400 block of Floral called to report that her side garage door had appeared to be broken into. An officer checked the door and noted damage to the lock area. The homeowner checked the garage and nothing was taken.

LARCENY FROM A BUILDING

On January 19th a citizen came to the police station to report a stolen phone. The victim stated he was at Zap Zone on January 17th and while playing laser tag, his phone fell out of his pocket. When he realized it was not in his pocket he went to look for it and it was already gone. No one turned in a phone to management and the phone was already turned off. The victim believes someone found the phone and took it.

SUSPICIOUS PERSONS

On January 19th, at approximately 7:45 p.m., officers were dispatched to the area of Drakehire Apartments for a report of two suspicious persons. Upon arrival the officers spoke with the reporting person who advised that he had been the victim of an assault several days earlier and that he saw the two suspects walking in the apartment complex. Officers checked the area but were unable to locate the suspects.

DRIVING WHILE LICENSE SUSPENDED (DWLS)

On January 20th, at approximately 9:58 p.m., two officers on patrol stopped a vehicle in the area of Shiawassee and Hillcrest for having an expired license plate. Further investigation revealed that the driver had a suspended license and a warrant for her arrest out of the Michigan State Police 2nd District. The driver was arrested for DWLS and transported to the Farmington jail where she was booked and processed. The woman posted bond for her charges and was released.

CARBON MONOXIDE (CO) ALARM

On January 21st, at approximately 2:43 p.m., officers responded to a Wynset Condominiums residence where a CO detector was going off. Upon investigation it was noted that the alarm was actually a low battery alarm going off but the residence was checked with a multi gas meter to be sure that there were no hazardous conditions.

OPERATING WHILE INTOXICATED (OWI)/POSSESSION OF MARIJUANA/DRIVING WHILE LICENSE SUSPENDED (DWLS)

On January 22nd an officer stopped a vehicle travelling westbound Grand River near School Street with no headlights activated and two flat front tires. The driver stated she ran into a curb at an unknown location causing her front tires to go flat. The officer detected an odor of intoxicants coming from the interior of the vehicle. The driver admitted to consuming alcohol at a birthday party. The driver failed field sobriety tests with a PBT of .08(4). The driver also had a suspended driver's license. The driver was arrested for OWI and the vehicle was impounded. During the booking process, a small baggie of Marijuana was located in the driver's purse. The Marijuana was confiscated by the officer. The driver submitted to a breath test and received a citation for OWI/Possession of Marijuana and DWLS. The driver was housed until sober.

SMOKE INVESTIGATION

On January 22nd, at 12:10 p.m., officers along with Engine 3 and callback personnel responded to the Farmington Oaks Apartments for the report of smoke in the hallway. Upon arrival it was learned that the source of the smoke was a careless cook and that there was no fire. An exhaust fan was utilized in order to clear the smoke from the building.

SUSPICIOUS CIRCUMSTANCE

On January 22nd, at 12:15 p.m., an officer responded to a Brittany Hill Street residence for the late report of suspicious footprints found in the snow. The resident advised that sometime prior to 6:00 p.m. the previous night, an unknown car pulled into the driveway and somebody walked up near the garage. There were no signs of criminal activity found.

FRAUD

On January 22nd a resident in the 31900 block of Lamar Street reported an identity theft report. The homeowner reported an unknown subject had opened a Verizon account in her name. The subject had purchased two cellphones and then returned them. The location of the account was unknown. The case was turned over to the Detective Bureau for further investigation.

FAMILY TROUBLE

On January 23rd officers responded to the 33300 block of North Manor for a report of an argument between a man and woman. Officers learned upon their arrival the female had left the location. The other half stated that his ex-wife was upset at him about his new girlfriend. She began yelling at him outside near his car and then drove off.

HARASSING COMMUNICATIONS

On January 23rd a citizen came to this police station to report his brother has been calling him at his place of employment in the 31500 block of Grand River. The citizen went on to say his brother has called numerous times and has threatened him. The citizen also stated his brother has shown up in the past and is concerned he will keep doing this. The citizen was provided with information on how to obtain a Personal Protection Order.

BREAKING AND ENTERING

On January 23rd officers responded to the 35300 block of Drakeshire Lane on a report of a breaking and entering. The victim stated when he returned home he noticed his door was ajar and a TV was next to his door. Upon further looking he noticed his apartment was ransacked and items missing. Officers collected evidence to be sent to the Oakland County Crime Lab for further evaluation.

FAIL TO OBEY OFFICER'S SIGNAL

On January 23rd, at approximately 8:47 p.m., an officer on patrol observed a vehicle speeding in the area of Grand River Avenue and Farmington Road. The officer attempted to stop the vehicle by activating the patrol vehicle's overhead lights and siren. The vehicle continued east on Grand River despite the driver continually looking back at the officer. The driver disobeyed the red light at Grand River and Orchard Lake Road as he continued east. Two more officers became involved in the pursuit as well as three more Farmington Hills officers. The driver stopped his vehicle at Target, Grand River and Cora area, after seeing the number of police cars. The driver was arrested for fleeing police. The driver advised that he realized that the police were behind him, but didn't think that the police wanted him to stop. The driver was housed at the Farmington jail and charged with Fail to Obey an Officer's Signal and Reckless Driving.

ASSIST OTHER POLICE AGENCY

On January 23rd, at approximately 9:09 p.m., two officers were dispatched to the area of Nine Mile and Haggerty to assist the Novi Police Department in a search for four subjects who had attempted to commit an armed robbery.

TRESPASSING

On January 23rd, at approximately 10:06 p.m., officers were dispatched to a report of a disorderly intoxicated person at Starbucks who was refusing to leave the business. Upon arrival officers learned that the suspect had already left the business but that management wanted him advised to not return to the business or be arrested for trespassing. Officers further learned that the suspect had come into the business intoxicated and began aggressively flirting with an employee despite being told to stop. Due to the description that management gave the officers, they realized that they knew who he was from previous contacts with him. Officers went to the man's home and he admitted that he had gone to Starbucks. The man was advised that he would be arrested if he returned to the business and he advised that he understood.

RESIST AND OBSTRUCT/OPERATING WHILE INTOXICATED (OWI)

On January 24th, at approximately 2:30 a.m., a commander on patrol stopped a vehicle for driving in the center turn lane and weaving between two lanes in the area of Eight Mile and Farmington Road. Further investigation revealed that the driver had been drinking at a bar in Detroit and was heading to his mother's home in Livonia. The man exhibited signs of intoxication and failed several sobriety exams. The man submitted to a preliminary breath test with a result of .15 and was arrested for OWI. The man passed out in the back of the police vehicle and was transported to the Farmington jail. Upon being escorted to the booking room, the man began vomiting profusely and passed out again. Because of the man's intoxication, a search warrant was obtained for the man's blood instead of requesting a Datamaster breath test. The man was woken up and escorted to a Community EMS ambulance where paramedics attempted to obtain the man's blood. Although the man was handcuffed, he began actively fighting with the paramedics to avoid having his blood drawn. Three officers had to hold the man down, but he was still able to injure one of the paramedic's hands. Officers removed the man from the ambulance for fear that he would further harm a paramedic. The man was placed in a jail cell and is being charged with Resisting and Obstructing (a two year felony) and OWI (second offense).

OPERATING WHILE INTOXICATED (OWI)

On January 24th, at approximately 3:08 a.m., an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle in the area of Grand River and Orchard Lake Road for speeding. Further investigation revealed that the driver had been drinking at the Luna Bar in Royal Oak and exhibited signs of intoxication. The man failed several sobriety exams and was arrested for OWI. The man was transported to the Farmington jail where he submitted to a Datamaster breath test. The man had a blood alcohol content of a .12.

OBSCENE MATERIAL

On January 24th an officer responded to the 33600 block of Grand River on a report of obscene material that was sent via computer. The officer learned that a parent was going through an iPad, which her teenage child uses, and observed that someone from out of state sent an obscene picture to her child's "KIK" account. The officer collected information so further investigation can be done.

DRIVING WHILE LICENSE SUSPENDED (DWLS)

On January 24th, at approximately 9:13 p.m., an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle in the area of Grand River Avenue and Grove Street for speeding. Further investigation revealed that the driver had a suspended license and a warrant for his arrest out of the MSP 2nd District. The man was arrested for driving on a suspended license and was housed at the Farmington jail.

FAMILY TROUBLE

On January 25th officers were called to the 33800 block of Glenview on a report of two sisters having an argument. The officers learned that one of the sisters was home from school and was not happy about her other sister moving back home. An argument started and then ended with one of them leaving to return to school out of town.

ASSIST OTHER POLICE DEPARTMENT

On January 25th, at approximately 11:46 p.m., two officers were dispatched to Windemere Apartment's to assist two Farmington Hills officers who were dealing with a disorderly intoxicated subject. Officers assisted the Farmington Hills officers in handcuffing the subject.

NOTE:

Dayshift officers also responded to seven (7) medical emergencies during this time period.
