WEEKLY RECAP

November 2 – November 8, 2015

LARCENY FROM AUTO

On November 3rd at 5:19 PM, officers were dispatched to the 33000 block of Slocum for the report of a vehicle that had been broken into. Officers spoke with the victim who stated she was at an area business for about 10 minutes and when she returned to her vehicle she found the window had been broken out. The victims purse, wallet, $200 in cash and tablet computer were taken.

DISORDELY PERSON, WARRANT ARREST

On November 4th at 2:16 PM, officers were dispatched to the Shiawassee Park for the report of a disorderly person. The reporting party stated that she was walking in the park when she was approached by a male who wanted to take her picture. The subject declined being photographed which upset the male suspect. He then accused her of being an “undercover cop”, and yelled at her. The female went to her vehicle and called 911. Officers located the suspect at the pavilion inside the park. The suspect smelled of intoxicants and appeared to be under the influence. A pint of whisky was on the ground near the suspect. When questioned about the incident, the suspect stated that he was being followed by an undercover officer and wanted to take her picture. A LEIN check of the suspect showed a warrant out of this department. The suspect submitted to a preliminary breath test with a result of .14 BAC. The suspect was arrested and lodged in the Farmington jail until he could be arraigned on the warrant.

DRIVING WHILE LICENSE SUSPENDED

On November 5th, at 7:22 AM, an officer on patrol observed a vehicle run the red light at Orchard Lake and Shiawassee. The officer stopped the vehicle and the driver could not produce a driver’s license. A LEIN check of the driver revealed that she was driving on a suspended license. The driver was arrested and the vehicle was turned over to a licensed passenger. The driver was lodged in the Farmington Jail.

LARCENY OF AUTO PARTS

On November 5th at 7:25 AM, officers were dispatched to Lilac St for the report of larceny of tires. The victim came out to find her car up on blocks with the tires and rims missing. The incident occurred sometime over the night. Officers canvassed the area but none of the neighbors heard or saw anything suspicious during the night.

LARCENY FROM AUTO

On November 5th, at 7:50 AM, officers were dispatched to Blanchard Blvd for the report of a Larceny from auto. Officers met with the victim who indicated that sometime over the night, an unknown suspect entered his unlocked car and took a Glock handgun and a snare drum. The vehicle did not appear to have been forced open. Latent finger prints were recovered and submitted to the crime lab.

DRIVING WHILE LICENESE SUSPENDED, FAIL TO YIELD TO EMERGENCY VEHICLE

On November 6th at 8:17 PM an officer was assisting a disabled motorist on eastbound M5 near Farmington Rd. A commander took a position east of the officers to watch for vehicles which did not move over a lane as required by Michigan law. The Commander observed a vehicle traveling at the posted speed limit fail to move over, passing very close to the officer's patrol car. The Commander stopped the vehicle and learned that the driver multiple suspensions on his driver's license and a warrant for his arrest. The driver was arrested and lodged in the Farmington jail.

ASSIST OTHER POLICE AGENCY

On November 7th at 8:05 AM, a sergeant was on patrol in the Downtown Plaza when he was flagged down by a passing motorist. The motorist explained that a subject had just rammed the front doors of a gas station located at 9 Mile and Farmington Rd and was now striking vehicles on Farmington Rd. The sergeant observed the vehicle in question stop on Farmington Rd south of Grand River and intentionally backup, ramming another car. The suspect vehicle then fled the area. Farmington Hills police located the suspect vehicle at the intersection on 9 Mile and Middlebelt. The suspect driver was taken into custody without incident. It was later learned that the suspect had also rammed the doors of a hotel in the 10 Mile and Grand River area. It was determined that the suspect was experiencing a psychotic episode and was transported to Beaumont of Farmington Hills for evaluation before he was to be lodged in jail.
