SUMMARY OF NOTABLE INCIDENTS

Odor Investigation

On August 31st officers and Engine 1 responded to a home on Laurelwood Ct for a report of a possible gas leak. Upon arrival officers discovered that the gas leak was caused by a drilling company that had accidentally struck a gas line while digging a line for AT&T. Consumer's Energy was contacted and the scene was turned over to Consumer's for repair.

Solicitor

On September 1st an officer responded to the area of Macomb St. and Wilmarth St. for a report of a man going door to door selling magazines. Upon arrival the officer located the man who admitted to not having a City of Farmington solicitor's license. The man had two warrants for his arrest out of nearby agencies who were unable to pick up the man. The man was cited for soliciting without a license and released.
