FRAUD:

On October 3rd, at approximately 6:15 PM, an officer was dispatched to take a fraud report. The reporting party advised that they were contacted by telephone by someone claiming to be with the DTE advising their account was past due. The suspect advised that the only way to prevent the power from being shut off was to go to Walgreens and purchase a cash card. The reporting party provided the suspect with the credit card numbers and became suspicious when the suspect would not give a reference number.
